*Recital of the aforesaid In-

Christmas

Christmas day last for seven years from thence next ensuing, under the yearly Rent of Fourscore and Eleven thousand and five hundred pounds of lawfull English money, or lawfull Irish money, equivalent thereto, at the four usual feasts by equal portions: And the first payment thereof to begin upon our Lady day last past before the date hereof.

And whereas we have by the same Indenture likewise demised to the said John Forth, and other the Farmers first above named, the Customes and Subsidies of Tunnage and Poundage, and the Duties of Excize for Goods imported as fully as they have been, or may be granted, except the Alnage and such other Duties of Customes and Excize as may hereafter be imposed beyond the present Rates; And except the Customes of Bullion, Allome, Smaults, Saffers, and also the Prizage and Butlerage, and the Customes of Logwood, and Logwood forfeited; and except the Duty of five shillings per Tonne upon French Shipping, To have and to hold from the Feast of the Nativity of our Lord God next ensuing for Six years, under the yearly rent of Threescore and fifteen thousand pounds, but payable in several proportions, and according unto several Monthly distributions therein more particularly mentioned and expressed.

And whereas also, We have by the same Indenture demised unto the said Farmers the Excize of Beer and Ale and Strong-waters, and other Excisable Liquors, within our said Realm of Ireland, commonly called the Inland Excize, and Duties arising upon Licenses to retail Ale and Beer, To have and to hold from the Five and twentieth day of March 1671. for the term of Four years and three quarters from thence next ensuing; Yielding and paying, during the First four years of the said term, Fifty three thousand pounds yearly, by four quarterly payments, and during the Last three quarters of a year, Thirty nine thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds, by three equal and quarterly payments; The first payment of the Fifty three thousand pounds to be upon the Feast of St. John the Baptist, 1672. And the first payment of the Thirty nine thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds to be upon the Feast of St. John the Baptist 1675. As by the same Indenture, and the several demises thereby made, or mentioned to be made, (amongst divers other Powers, Provisoos, Covenants and Clauses therein contained) more fully and at large it doth and may appear: By reason of which several and respective demises so as aforesaid made; There will be due and payable to Us, during the First year of the said Seven years, ending at the Feast of the Nativity of our Lord next ensuing, only the Rent of Fourscore and Eleven thousand and five hundred pounds; And after the said Feast of the Nativity of our Lord next ensuing, unto the Feast of the Nativity of our Lord which shall be in the year of our Lord 1675. there will be due and payable unto us, as a further encrease of Rent, the yearly Sum of threescore and fifteen thousand pounds, which being added unto the former Sum, amounts to One hundred threescore and six thousand and five hundred pounds yearly, and after the Feast of the Annuntiation of the blessed sed Virgin Mary which shall be in the year of our Lord 1671. unto the said Feast of the Annuntiation in the year of our Lord 1675. there will be due and payable as a further Encrease of Rent, the yearly Sum of Fifty and three thousand pounds, and from thence untill the Feast of the Nativity of our Lord 1675. the Sum of Thirty nine thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds, in all the Sum of Two hundred and nineteen thousand and five hundred pounds yearly; Which Rent was first undertaken to be given by the said William Muschamp and Humphrey Taylor alone, who did also contract and agree to advance the Sum of Threescore and ten thousand pounds: And whereas the Covenants, Reservations, and Agreements aforesaid, were of too great weight and value to rest upon the security of the said William Muschamp, and Humphrey Taylor onely, insomuch that We did in no sort think fit to make or perfect any Grant of the Premisses, untill John Forth, William Bucknall, William Dashwood, Philip Jemmet, John Breedon, James Hayes, Dannet Forth, George Dashwood, and Ralph Bucknall, were willing to contract with Us, and to become Tenants and Farmers of the Premisses; who have also submitted to Our further pleasure, that all Quit-rents which have by Us been granted or released before the Feast of Saint Michael the Arch-angel now last past, should stand excepted out of the Demise to them made, to their no small loss and detriment.

We therefore, for the better Encouragement of them the said John Forth, William Bucknall, William Dashwood, Philip Jemmet, John Breedon, James Hayes, Dannet Forth, George Dashwood, and Ralph Bucknall, in the management of the said Farm, and in consideration of their many and acceptable Services to Us heretofore done, and hereafter to be done and performed, and as a mark of Our especial favour to them shewn, and for divers other good Causes and Considerations Us thereunto especially moving, of Our especial grace, certain knowledge, and meer motion, have given and granted, and by these Presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, do give and grant unto the said John Forth, William Bucknall, William Dashwood, Philip Jemmet, John Breedon, James Hayes, Dannet Forth, George Dashwood, and Ralph Bucknall, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, out of the several Rents in and by the aforesaid Indenture to Us reserved and payable as aforesaid, the several Sums of Money, and in the proportions and manner following: (that is to say) out of the aforesaid Rent or Sum of Fourscore and eleven thousand and five hundred pounds per Annum, due and payable to Us by the aforesaid Indenture, between the Five and twentyeth day of December last past, and the Five and twentyeth day of December next ensuing the date hereof, the Sum of Six thousand two hundred fifty and two pounds; And out of the said two several yearly Rents or Sums of Fourscore and eleven thousand and five hundred pounds, and Threescore and fifteen thousand pounds per Annum, to Us due and payable by the aforesaid Indenture, between the Five and twentyeth day of December

And We do hereby command, authorize and impower the Lord Treasurer, Vice-Treasurer, Chancellor, and Barons of Our Court of Exchequer in Ireland, and all other Officers and Ministers of Our Revenue there for the time being, That they and every of them do accordingly permit and suffer the said John Forth, William Bucknall,

And out of the other Rents due between 25. Dec. 1670. and 25. Dec. 1671. 14773 l. 10s. And out of the Rents due between 25. Dec. 1671. and 25. Dec. 1675. during the last four years 15000 l. Habendum to the only benefit of these Patents.

who are also to detain their said abatements out of the Rents.

And the Lord Treasurer, &c. to suffer such abatements, &c.

By way of Retainer.

By virtue of these Presents, without further warrant.

And whereas there are several Summes of Money now due, and in arrear to His Majesty for Quit-rents from several Persons within the said Kingdom of Ireland, a speedy and hasty Collection whereof may not onely very much hinder and disable the Persons so owing the same Arrears to pay the same, But also the future growing Quit-rents by them to be due and payable, and by the Indenture aforesaid demised and granted to the said John Forth, William Bucknall, William Dashwood, Philip Jemmet, John Breedon, James Hayes, Dannel Forth, George Dashwood, William Muschamp, Humphrey Taylor, and Ralph Bucknall; whereas a moderate Collection of the said Arrears may render the same Persons more able to pay, as well the said Arrears, as also the future growing Quit-rents.

Notwithstanding the ill reciting, not reciting, or mis-reciting the aforesaid Indenture of Demise, made or granted, to the said John Forth, William Bucknall, William Dashwood, Philip Femmet, John Breedon, James Hayes, Dannet Forth, George Dashwood, William Muschamp, Humphrey Taylor, and Ralph Bucknall, or to the former Farmers of any of the said Farmes still in being, or any the Rents or Summes of Money thereby or thereupon reserved and payable to Us, or any other Matter, Cause or Thing whatsoever therein contained, to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding, or any other defect, matter, cause or thing whatsoever, to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.
